

(3) POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION (PGJMC)

Structure and Brief Syllabi of PGJMC

Objective: The objective of the programme is to meet shortage of qualified personnel in this area and provide an opportunity to equip students to take up the challenging job of journalism in ever developing mass communication system of the country.

Eligibility Criteria for Admission: – Graduate in any discipline

Scheme of Examination - PGJMC course is of one year duration. It will be necessary for students admitted in this course to pass in each paper of the course separately, securing atleast 33% of marks in each paper. To determine 33% of marks in each paper, the marks obtained by the students, both in term end theoretical written examination and assignment / practical, as the case may, will be clubbed and counted together to determine the aforesaid pass percentage. However, if a candidate has failed to appear or secured zero mark in written examination and / or assignment /practical work in any paper, he/she will be deemed of have failed in that paper. Failure in one paper will mean failure in that Part of the examination. Hence, students must strive hard to pass individually in all the papers.

The course consists of six theory papers, each carrying 100 marks as below:
